Isaiah 40:8 reminds us that while everything in this world is temporary and constantly changing, God's Word remains forever. It gives us confidence that His promises are dependable and will never fade or fail.

1 Peter 4:10 reminds us that God has given each of us unique gifts and abilities. We are called to use these gifts to serve others and share God's grace with those around us.

Jesus rose from the grave, conquering sin and death and bringing hope to all who believe in Him. His resurrection reminds us that death is not the end, and that His love and promise of eternal life stand forever.

Being a daughter of the King means knowing that you are deeply loved, chosen, and valued by Jesus. Your identity is not found in the world's approval, but in belonging to Him and walking confidently in His grace.

Jonah 2:2 reminds us that even in our deepest moments of distress, we can call out to God, and He hears us. No matter how far we feel we have fallen, God is able to meet us there and bring us hope.

2 Corinthians 5:7 reminds us to trust God even when we cannot see the path ahead. Walking by faith means choosing to follow Him with confidence, knowing that He is faithful even in the unknown.

Ephesians 4:5–6 reminds us that, as believers, we are united by one Lord, one faith, and one baptism. There is one God and Father of all, who is above all, through all, and in all.

As Christians, we are called to serve others with the gifts, time, and love God has given us. Serving is a way of reflecting Christ's love and being His hands and feet in the world.

Galatians 5:1 reminds us that Christ has set us free, calling us to live in the freedom He has given us. We are encouraged not to return to the burdens of bondage, but to stand firm in the freedom found in Him.

Joshua 1:9 reminds us to be strong and courageous because God is with us wherever we go. We do not have to fear the unknown, because His presence gives us the courage to keep moving forward.

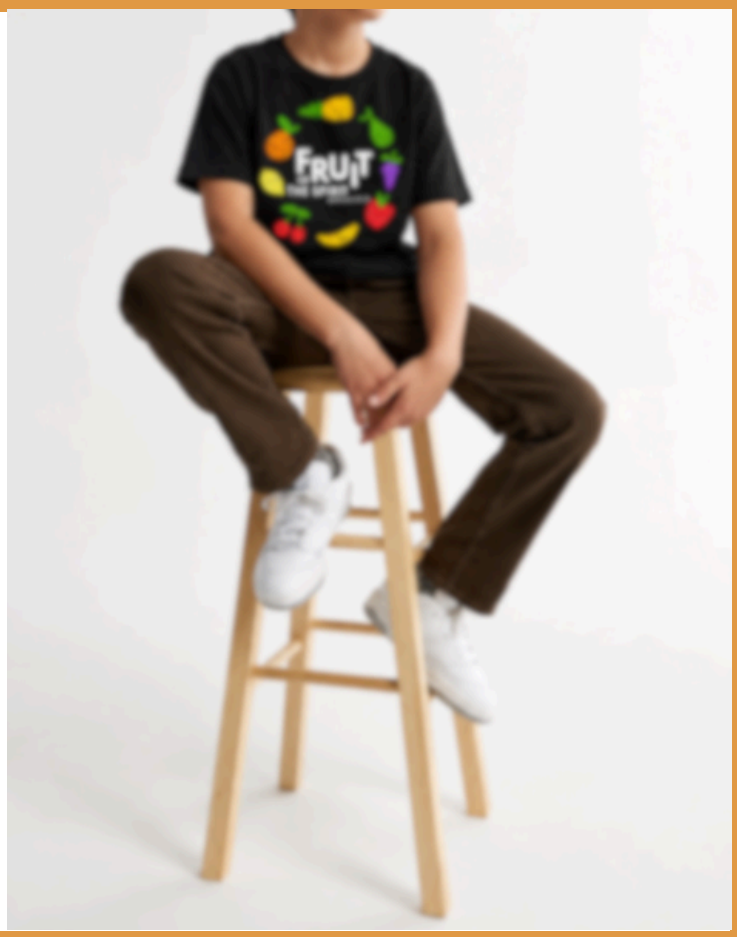

Christians are called to show kindness to others, just as Christ has shown kindness and grace to us. Through our words and actions, we can reflect God's love and make a difference in the lives of those around us.

The fruit of the Spirit—love, joy, peace, patience, kindness, goodness, faithfulness, gentleness and self-control—reflects the character of Christ growing in us. As we walk with God, His Spirit shapes our hearts so that these qualities become evident in the way we live and treat others.

A girl who belongs to God is deeply loved, known, and wonderfully made by Him. Her identity is not found in what the world says about her, but in being a beloved child of God.

A boy who belongs to God is deeply loved, known, and wonderfully made by Him. His identity is not found in what the world says about him, but in being a beloved child of God.

Running is more than just a sport to me; it is a way of honouring Jesus, who gave His life for me. Every step I take reminds me that because He ran the race for me, I can run my race for Him—with faith, purpose, and perseverance.

Jesus is the way, leading us toward truth, life, and a relationship with God. When the path feels uncertain, He is the One to follow and trust.

Jesus offers a living water that satisfies the deepest thirst of the soul and gives everlasting life. Those who come to Him will find a lasting source of hope, peace, and life that the world cannot provide.

With Christ, what may seem impossible can be faced with strength, courage, and faith. Philippians 4:13 reminds us that through Him, we can endure and accomplish what He calls us to do.

Philippians 2:11 reminds us that Jesus Christ is Lord, and one day every tongue will acknowledge His name. His lordship is above all, and His glory deserves to be proclaimed by everyone.

Revelation 19:1 is a powerful reminder that salvation, glory, and power belong to our God. It calls us to praise Him with all that we are, because He alone is worthy of all honour and worship.

Every breath speaks His name, because every moment of life is a gift from Yahweh. His presence is in every breath, reminding us that our lives belong to Him.

Jeremiah 29:11 reminds us that God holds our future in His hands, with plans that are filled with hope and purpose. Even when the path is uncertain, we can trust that He has not forgotten us.

BY HIS POWER

for His glory

WITH HIS LOVE

Everything we do can be lived for His glory, by His power, and with His love. Our lives are an opportunity to reflect who He is and point others back to Him.

Jesus is the Alpha and the Omega—the beginning and the end, the One who was, who is, and who is to come. He is sovereign over every moment, reminding us that our story begins and ends in Him.

Our identity is not defined by our achievements, failures, appearance, or what others think of us, but by who we are in Christ. In Him, we are loved, chosen, forgiven, and called to live with purpose.

Being “God’s silliest goose” is a playful reminder that we don’t have to take ourselves too seriously. Even in our quirks and silliness, we are wonderfully made and deeply loved by God.

We are called to serve God and others with humble hearts, using the gifts He has given us. Serving is not about recognition, but about reflecting Christ’s love through our actions.

God's mercies are new every morning, giving us a fresh reminder of His faithfulness and love. No matter what yesterday held, His grace gives us a new day to begin again with hope.

Being a "Happy Human" is a reminder to embrace the joy and blessings God has placed in everyday life. True joy comes from knowing that we are loved by God and can find reasons to be grateful in every season.

The fruit of the Spirit is seen in a life shaped by God's love—love, joy, peace, patience, kindness, goodness, faithfulness, gentleness, and self-control. These qualities reflect the character of Christ and grow in us as we walk closely with Him.

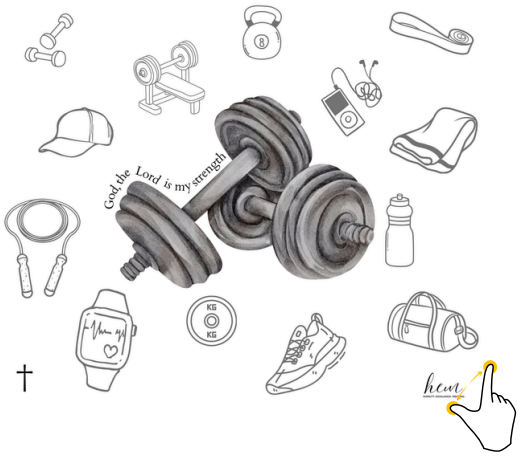

We are called to serve God and others with humble hearts, using the gifts He has given us. Serving is not about recognition, but about reflecting Christ's love through our actions.

"Make heaven crowded" is a reminder to share the hope and love of Jesus with others. Through our words, actions, and example, we can point people toward Christ and the gift of salvation.

The Lord is our strength when we feel weak, reminding us that we do not have to face life in our own power. When our strength runs out, we can rely on Him to carry us, sustain us, and give us courage.

PLEASE NOTE

Production & Delivery

All products are printed in Gqeberha (Port Elizabeth). Once your payment has been received and your order has been placed, I will submit it for production. Please allow up to 7 business days for your order to be printed and delivered.

Shipping Costs

All prices exclude shipping. Courier fees will be calculated based on your delivery address and will be added to your order total.

Product Mock-ups

The designs shown are accurate, but the products displayed are mock-ups for illustration purposes only. The actual T-shirts, hoodies and caps may differ slightly in material, fit, or brand, as they are sourced from a different supplier.

Custom Printing

Love a design but want it on a different product? No problem! Any design can be printed on a different item. For example, the "Once Lost" design can be printed on a hoodie instead of a T-shirt, or vice versa.

Cancellations & Refunds

Once an order has been placed, cancellations are non-refundable. As each item is custom-made to order, no refunds will be issued for cancelled orders.
